The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible, it makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some paths to compile from several sources the renewing general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petitioner is a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $(500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe 'Counselor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no deb or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

JOHN POOL'S SPEECH IN RALEIGH.

"Why were so many men disfranchised? Because by this means the Constitution would be secured. Sixteen thousand had been disfranchised."

All of them white men!

"If this was not sufficient, fifty thousand would be disfranchised, and that disfranchisement made perpetual. Enough men will be difranchised to secure equal rights to all." That is, John, you will, in addition to 16,000, that are already distranchised, disfranchise 50,000 more—take away their rights—the rights of white men—to secure the rights of "all." Of what all, John? Why, John Pool and the negro.—Ah! John, that Irishman who was willing to sacrifice a part of the British Constitution, and, if necessary, the whole of it, to secure the balance, perpetrated a bull,—but he meant well; the same may not be truthfully said of you, John. You would sacrifice the rights of all, even your own honor, if you had any, to secure the rights of John Pool—to the Senate and the negro—that's all!

"This will be done before the first day of next July, if the Constitution is not ratified. The State must go back, by fair means, if she will—by foul means, if she must."

This is a "foul" THREAT, John. It is a threat to intimidate voters, honest, well-meaning white voters. Is it not a wholesale violation of Gen. Canby's order? Or do you think this order was not meant for such men as you, John? But think of it, John. You have said it, "by fair means if she will—by foul means if she must." Seriously, this is infamous, John, and, if the author of it be not already infamous, this declaration should render him so among all decent people.

But, after all, we may misunderstand Mr. John Pool. He may mean only to embarrass the Radicals. Did he not hold office under the Confederacy, and did he not take an oath, a solemn OATH, to support the Constitution of the Confederate States, and did he not authorise Mr. Doolittle to say that he held office to embarrass the rebellion?—If he could take a solemn oath to support the Confederate government, for the purpose of breaking it up, may he not, with equal propriety, join the Radicals for the purpose of embarrassing them? Of course he may, and we ask that no man will condemn Mr. Senator John Pool, until his motives are known, and that these may not be judged, either by his declarations or his oaths, for, after the election, it may appear that he was actuated by the wish to embarrass the Rads, and that he contributed much, under concealed motives, to their defeat in North Carolina! Then his virtues and his worth will be made apparent, and we may want to send him to the U. S. Senate. O! Oily Gammon!

ALL IS WELL! Only vote,—VOTE,—VOTE; AND WE SHALL DEFEAT THE MONGRELS OVERWHELMINGLY!

RALLY! RALLY!! RALLY!!!

TO MORROW, friends,—WHITE MEN,—the voting commences. Let no consideration keep you from the polls. The duty which rests upon you to vote, in this election, is the most solemn which EVER devolved upon you. We tell you that your highest and most sacred interests are at stake,—the vital welfare of your State, of your wives and your children. If you fail to do your duty now, you will repent it in sackcloth and ashes, for the balance of your days. And you will deserve all the remorse that you may hereafter feel for criminal dereliction!

If you would not be placed beneath the heel of negro domination—VOTE!

If you would not be placed on a level with the negro in the schools and the militia,—VOTE!

If you would not see the marriage relation degraded,—VOTE!

If you would not be taxed, to the extent of confiscation, for the benefit of negroes and Northern bond-holders,—VOME! It can be proven that Harris, the negro candidate in this county, declared his intention, if elected to the Legislature, to "go in" for taxing the white man's land so heavily, as to compel its sale, and then the "poor negroes" could buy it for a song!

If you would not see the Judiciary corrupted and dragged into the mire and mud of partisanship,—VOTE!

If you would defeat the arch plotter of everything that has been done to your prejudice and injury,—VOTE, and consign him to ignominious and overwhelming defeat!

You CAN do it. We believe, firmly, that YOU WILL. Now, friends, or never! UP AND AT THE MONGRELS! Be quiet, peaceable, orderly, but DETERMINED AND FIRM. Let nothing shake your stern resolve to vote down this infamous Constitution and its notorious and traitorous authors!

DISFRANCHISEMENT FOR FELONY.

A correspondent writes: "Please examine and see if persons convicted of stealing, and other felony, are disfranchised. My impression is that they are. Ninety nine out of every hundred of such men are Radicals. Over 1,000 have been thus convicted since the surrender."

It is one of the most infamous features of the infamous Constitution, that crime, no matter how heinous, works no disfranchisement as to the right of voting. While, under the Reconstruction acts of Congress, many of the best, purest and most intelligent and distinguished white men of the State are excluded from the ballot, the mongrel Constitution lets in every negro in the State,—even such as may have been convicted, since the surrender, of larceny, perjury or any other felony. The framers of that detestable instrument determined to employ even negro convicts and criminals to put the white men of North Carolina under foot, in order to the accomplishment of their base and unhallowed designs! Remember that, they who ARE white men!

Crime, committed since the surrender, does disqualify from holding office. Look to this. Some of the Radical candidates for office will doubtless be disabled under this clause of the "Constitution," if it should be adopted.

GOOD ADVICE TO COLORED MEN.

Many colored men are in doubt what to do in the coming election. They have not found voting to pay. Besides this, they find the white men of the State, the intelligence, the virtue and the worth of the State, determined to oppose the ratification of the new Constitution. They find the white people in earnest. To oppose them strikes prudent colored men as of doubtful propriety.

A colored man said to his old master, the other day, "I don't know what to do. I would like to do what is right and best. I find the white people going one way, and the colored people seem disposed to go against them. In such a case, I don't know what to do." His old master said to him, "Well," when a man don't know what to do—when he can't be sure what is right and best to do, the best way is to do nothing, lest you should do wrong."

This is sound advice, and every man would do well to take it, when he can't be sure he's right.

THE REAL ISSUE.

We learn that calculations are being made by the Radicals upon the votes of many for the infamous Constitution, who are interested in State Bonds and the new Railroads. There are some few white men, perhaps, in North Carolina, who have their price, who may vote for the Constitution from personal interest or from mercenary motives, but we feel sure that the calculations of the Radicals will fail.

The great issue is, whether the negro SHALL RULE in North Carolina or the white man—whether we shall have negro equality among us, or whether the white race shall continue to be the ruling race among us. No true man can ignore or compromise this great issue, for any personal advantage. The white people of North Carolina will not fail to recognise every man as an enemy of his race, who, at a time like this, will compromise the interests of the white race for any selfish gain to himself!

HOLDEN WILL NOT BE PARDONED.

We have received reliable information from Washington, the past week, that the great political trickster, W. W. Holden, will not be pardoned, and, in that event, every vote cast for him will be a vote lost, as he could not take his seat if he received every vote cast in the State.—Raleigh Register, (Rep.)

We take it for granted that the reliable information is received from Mr. Goodloe, late editor of the Register, who is now in Washington city. This news is in accordance with our statement last week that Congress DARE NOT pardon the man who FIRST PROPOSED THE PLOT TO ASSASSINATE PRESIDENT LINCOLN.—Greensboro' Patriot.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

ARMY OFFICERS AND RADICALISM.

While some of the Army officers stationed in the South, (one or two of whom we have in our eye conspicuously,) have lent themselves, officially and personally, to Radical partyism, it is gratifying to see that very many are becoming disgusted with that atrocious faction. It would appear, too, that the violent Radical leaders are becoming distrustful of and insolent to such military officers as discharge their duties impartially and fairly, and fail to prostitute their authority directly to the interests of the Radical party.

The late scene in the Virginia Convention is one case in point. That concern, it is well known, has required the iron-clad oath for all State and County officers. Gen. Schofield visited the "Convention" on Friday last, remonstrated with them on this infamous exaction, told them that it would justly cause the defeat of their Constitution, and that, as the experience of his administration, there were not two capable men in any one county in the State, who could take that oath. This wholesome and prudent advice from the Military Commander was entirely thrown away,—probably received with derision. Every negro thought that he was fully capable of being Governor or anything else, and the negroloid scallawags thought so too, and so the mob, called by courtesy a Convention, refused to undo their iniquitous action. Who will be surprised that Gen. Schofield was utterly disgusted with Southern Radicalism?

In this connection, we are pleased to learn that but few, if any, Army officers in this city, could be induced to lend their countenance to the infamous Conover-Ashley, of subornation of perjury notoriety, on the occasion of his vindictive and incendiary harangue at Tucker Hall, on Friday night.

And, by the way, there is very general indignation expressed among them at the Standard's unwarrantable and violent attacks upon C. L. Bomford's fairness, efficiency and impartiality as Post Commander. We doubt, exceedingly, whether the X. P. G. could get as many Army signatures, today, to his piteous application for a removal of his "disabilities," (poor fellow!) as there were attached to the late paper which we published.

TAXES! TAXES!

To pay themselves $8 per day, to pay the Convention Printers $8 per ream for paper, for which the price ought to be only $4,—thus really defrauding the people out of $4 per ream,—to pay Holden's son Joseph $6 per day, for reporting for his own newspaper—the Convention levied a tax on all the personal property of the State, on the widow's cow, the baby's lamb, chickens, ducks, &c.

Gen. Canby may alter this, and we hope will, but the burning disgrace on the Convention remains.

They did all they could to fasten this monstrous law on the people. And if the Constitution be adopted, and Holden elected, such laws will be passed again. To carry out the monstrous extravagance of the Constitution,—to arm and equip Holden's Brown low militia,—to enable him to charge extravagant prices for stationery,—to pay "Joseph" $6 per day for writing for his own newspaper,—to enable Turner, of Harnett, to draw for 524 miles at 20cts. per mile, when he had a right to charge for only 70 miles, the people will be taxed on all they have, their cows and pigs, and horses and ploughs!!

To escape this dreadful fate, let every man opposed, who can, VOTE. The Conservative, who stays from the polls, is aiding the Radicals

CANARDS.—The Radicals are busy in circulating rumors, that sundry respectable men among us, who are quiet men, not disposed to be noisy, are going to vote for the Constitution and the Radical ticket. Most of these declarations, if not all, are false and designed for effect. Make it a point, if you hear such a derogatory charge against any of your neighbors, not to speak of it, but to go at once to see your neighbor, and ask him if the rumor be true; then act, according to the answer you get.

It is also said, that certain gentlemen will not vote at all. Go and ask them. This is no time for men to show a timid, fearful spirit. Every man who is entitled to vote, should do so, at any sacrifice. It is a question of life and death with the white man. If there be those among us, who are willing to sacrifice their race for mercenary or prudential considerations, let them be known. Those who are not for us are against us, and it is important that every man in a community should show his colors. Mark the man who is against the white man's government. Let every man understand, that the questions involved are not ordinary political differences, but they are social and moral questions, in which our wives and children are concerned, as well as ourselves. STAND TO YOUR COLORS, white men, and desert them not at such a time. A deserter, in such an hour as this, must expect the scorn and ignominy due to a deserter!

"A MAN is known by the company he keeps," is a trite but true saying. We have been utterly astonished, of late, at the associations of some men, who formerly claimed to be respectable among us. Such men, although they have sacrificed all self respect by the character of their present associations, think it unkind in their old friends to discard and ignore them.

We have observed, within a few days, Radical candidates for the votes of the people check by jowl with the most infamous white men and negroes among us. In the South, the Radical party is fast becoming infamous, because of the infamous character of many of its supporters. Indeed, it would seem, that the more contemptible the man is, in moral standing, the more he is valued by the party.

GENERAL CLINGMAN.—Ex-Senator Clingman, of North Carolina, is now here quite sick. He has lately returned from New York, where he has been very successful in inducing capitalists to invest in mining operations in his State. He says the only obstacle he found was the fear the Northern people have of negro supremacy.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 16.

Impeachment seems to be like a game of see saw—it is constantly up and down and down and up with the President and his opponents. People, even the few who generally have the opportunity for being well posted, are in a puzzle over the matter, not knowing for twenty four hours what to think, and catching at every little straw that is blown about in their eagerness to reach some satisfactory conclusion. There never before was a question before the national legislature about which there existed so much uncertainty and mystery. One day the Senate seems all one way, and the next in a direction quite the opposite. But in all this strange dubiety one thing may be safely be taken as a guide, and that is the plotting and planning for the Presidential succession. The result of the trial seems to hang more upon this than upon any conviction that may be arrived at as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. A week ago it seemed to be all fixed that the President should be removed as a political necessity; but since Monday a hitch in the programme has occurred, and this hitch may be the saving of the offending anti-radical obstacle. General Butler, who has thrown his managerial colleagues into the shade since the hard work of the trial commenced, and who has made Bingham, Boutwell, Wilson, Williams, and Old Thad himself, so many mere bobs to his high soaring kite, seems to have become the occasion of the hitch. Benjamin of Lowell has his one eye keenly after the Treasury Department, and is known to be ambitious to succeed Secretary McCulloch in case Mr. Johnson should be doomed to an early retirement to the shades of private life in Tennessee. Senator Wade in this event will owe his elevation to the Chief Magistracy principally to the audacity and ingenuity of Butler, who fully understands his worth, and will not scruple to exact his full remuneration to the last penny. It is believed that Butler settled this point with Wade a few weeks ago, and that the latter, in patting on the back both Boutwell, of Massachusetts, and Senator Morgan, of New York, has only been playing a smart little game of his own to keep them quiet while there is danger. Boutwell and Morgan both yearn for McCulloch's boots quite as much as Butler, be it known; but Butler, for his superior services, was to carry off the prize. Such was the writing in the bond; but now it appears General Grant's friends are beginning to figure out how the patronage will be arranged in case Wade gets in. If Wade lets Butler in, the latter will so manipulate as to secure a powerful influence for himself, and Grant's friends foresee trouble ahead through this arrangement.

It is being debated, therefore, whether it is worth while to remove President Johnson, through Gen. Grant's aid, only to promote Butler's interests at the risk of the chance's of the General in Chief. This new feature of the play behind the scenes is decidedly in favor of acquittal, notwithstanding the sound and fury before the footlights. The jealousies of rival factions may result in breaking down the whole radical plot, and the true policy of the President is now undoubtedly "dicale et impera." By following this policy he can smash up the deep laid plan for a military dictatorship and perpetuation of radical rule foreshadowed in yesterday's dispatches.

ALARMED.—The Radical tricksters, alarmed at their persecution yesterday of Sergeant Bates, have, as we learn, got together a string of certificates to the effect that that brave soldier might, perhaps, have had access to the dome of the Capitol, if he had only waited and waited and waited for the turning up of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, who was, of course, conveniently away. As it was stated all about the streets on the morning of the arrival of Sergeant Bates that he would not be allowed to carry out his design of waving the American flag from the dome of the Capitol, and as all accounts agree, except that of a professed neutral paper here, which in reality is full of Radical views or venom, that the flag was repelled by the janitor of the Capitol under inspirings of Radical fanatics, it is rather late to patch up any tale to counteract the actual fact of Sergeant Bates' bad treatment at the hands of the Red Radical officials.—Nat. Intel.

RALLY! CONSERVATIVES!

There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Raleigh, in the Court House, on Monday night, the 20th.

The Conservative county candidates will address the people and other speeches may be expected.

Let us have a glorious rally! It will be the last meeting of the campaign. Let us hope that our next meeting will be to congratulate one another on the defeat of the NEGRO RADICAL, TAXING CONSTITUTION!

FREE CONSERVATIVE BARBECUE AT SPIKES',

MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1868.

Good cheer! Good speaking! And a good time, generally! The people of the county are invited to attend.

LADIES! PREPARE YOURSELVES FOR A RICH TREAT.—OPENING DAY, TUESDAY, THE 21ST DAY OF APRIL, AT MRS. CETTINGER'S.—Her styles, assortment of bonnets and hats, and, what is better than all, her prices, will compare favorably with any other first class establishment of the kind on the Western continent. td.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Nails, Shot and Bar Lead, Blasting and Rifle Powder, Kerosene Oil, &c.: J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

Corn and Salt: Upchurch & Dodd, Market Square.

Cooking Soda, Sugars and Coffee: Upchurch & Dodd.

ORANGE PRESBYTERY. This body was in session during the past week, at Hillsboro. Rev. Joseph M. Atkinson, of this city, was chosen Moderator. The attendance upon the session was good.

THE interesting meeting which has been progressing in the Baptist Church, during the past week, will be continued every evening of the present week.

CLOSE OF THE COUNTY CANVASS.—There was a large crowd at Forestville, on Saturday, to hear our candidates. There was not a single white Radical on the ground. The spirit was most enthusiastic, and our candidates made effective and stirring speeches, as they have done throughout the campaign. They deserve all praise and thanks for the able, manly and efficient manner in which they have borne themselves.

WILL THERE be separate tables for the negroes and so-called white folks, at the Radical barbecue, to-day? Of course not. That would be a prospective violation of the prospective "Konstitooshun!" Let the darkeys and scallawags eat and drink together, and be merry.

THEY DO SAY that Conover Ashley gave the X. P. G. some terribly hard rubs in Friday night's speech. When he drew a portrait of the "secessionists" and "rebels," who did all in their power to break up the government, the likeness was so exact of the X. P. G., that the multitudinous darkeys couldn't help seeing it. Conover should'nt have been so personal. This may account for the "mild as a sucking dove" notice of Ashley, which the Standard is said to contain.

OLD IREDELL.—An Iredell correspondent of the Concord Press says that that county "is all right against the negro Constitution, against Radicals in any and every shape and form, and for a white man's government in all things. The Red Strieglists are deaving the leagues in all parts of the county."

THE WRETCHED creature, Ashley, who tried to inflame the negroes in his Friday night's speech, to the highest pitch of resentment against the white race, would not have dared to make such a speech in his own Congressional District. Since he was elected, he has been most signally repudiated at home. The District which elected him has since given an overwhelming majority against negro suffrage. Let the impudent fellow go home and preach negro suffrage to his own constituents, who have rejected it! His love for the negro should begin at home.

"CAN'T STAND 'EM ANY LONGER."—The Concord Press is informed that Daniel Corle, a Radical Red String nominee in the county of Cabarrus, emphatically refuses to allow his name to be run on that ticket.—Mr. Corle at one time was a member of the League, but since its enormities have been exposed, and its social parts laid bare, since its purposes are for the degradation of the respectable whites, and the social equality of niggers in all things, Mr. Corle "can't stand 'em any longer." He has done just as many hundreds are doing all over the State.

THE WHOLE tenor of Conover Ashley's speech was to excite a war of races, the horrors of which he may witness from a distance. We learn that, in this respect, it was simply infamous. His appeals to the negro dupes were highly incendiary, and have sown bitter seed, which have cropped out in the excited language of negroes on the streets.

THE WARRENTON Indicator has not been able to hear of but two—possibly three—white men in Warren, who will vote with the Radicals. It knows of several colored men who will support the Conservative ticket.

HAS CONOVER ASHLEY, even though he be a member of Congress, a right to come into District No. 2, and violate Gen. Canby's orders? This he did, we learn, by threatening untold horrors upon those who may vote against the infamous Constitution!

CIRCULATING THE DOCUMENTS.—We see it stated in the Statesville American, that Bryan, one of the members of the late "Convention," is engaged in peddling pamphlet copies of the Constitution at fifty cents per copy. He evidently has an eye to business.

THE CONCORD Independent Press says that "it is a settled fact that the Conservatives will carry every county West of the North Carolina Road thus giving the White Man's ticket a thumping majority."

DANIEL B. BAKER, Esq., of Wilmington, died on the 17th. He was about 65 years of age, and had filled many public stations with usefulness.

FRANKLIN.—The white men gain about 130 votes on the registration in this county.

BUZFUZ BUTLER.

The self-styled hero of New Orleans, who appropriated other things besides the hard-earned laurels of Farragut, must be insensible not only to all sense of decency, as has long been known, but to everything like sensibility, however dull or difficult it may be to reach. Within a few days he has received deserved punishment for ofttimes impertinence at the hands of Gen. Sherman, Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Hon. G. Davis, and Mr. Stanbery. While these admonitions cowed him, and compelled respectful deportment for a time, his innate arrogance and insolent vulgarity cropped out again yesterday morning, and made it necessary for Mr. Evarts to administer to this low bully such a castigation as will keep him in place for some time to come. With his usual bluster and Old Bailey manner, he had "dared" the President's counsel to deny some untenable position which he had assumed in objecting to their testimony, expecting by this rudeness and assurance to carry his point. Mr. Evarts, in his dignified and polished style, reminded him that the counsel of the President were not accustomed to that sort of ruffianism, and that they came here for another purpose. All eyes turned towards Butler, and everybody, without regard to political sympathy, seemed to feel that he merited this stern and scathing rebuke. The Senate, evidently, was of that opinion, because all his subsequent objections to testimony were met with severe scorn.

To a spectator from the gallery, nothing can be more disgusting than his whole bearing, or more contemptuous than his treatment of the other managers. Mr. Bingham is the chairman by election on the part of the House, and, therefore, by position, the leading manager. But Butler has thrust himself forward, and arrogated to manage the whole case, without either consulting or deferring to the others. It was generally remarked yesterday, that when the documentary evidence of the defence was handed over, that he assumed to examine and decide upon it, as if no other person had the least right to an opinion, and although Mr. Bingham made several efforts to get the papers, no more attention was paid to him than to the page who goes on errands for the managers. In fact, there is no use for the presence of these six cyphers, unless it be by the force of numbers to give a mock solemnity to something that has become almost a broad farce. It is well and fitting, however, that one so well known and so properly appreciated should represent all the dignity of the Radical House of Representatives, but it is a little hard upon those who still value the name and character of the American Senate to see it converted into a forum for the display of a Tombs attorney like Butler, whose ignorance in the law which he audaciously rants about, and whose gross bearing, are the bye words of his own associates.—Nat. Intel.

A gentleman who has been Justice of the Peace for thirty five years in West Virginia, was not allowed to register because he owned a horse named "Stonewall Jackson," the Registrar remarking that "he'd be blanked if any truly loyal man would own a horse by that name."

The Standard cautions its readers to look for rebel (meaning Conservative) frauds.—We presume Radical frauds will be found without the trouble of "looking" for them.—Greensboro Patriot.

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

THE WEST ALL RIGHT!—YANCEY, MITCHELL, MADISON, BUNCOMBE, BURKE, ASHE, HAYWOOD, MACON, CHEROKEE, &c., &c.,—ALL O. K!!!

ASHEVILLE, April 14, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—We are having a glorious time here in the West. Vance is among us, battling nobly for the defeat of the nigger-begotten Constitution. Major Marcus Erwin, one of the canvassers for the State at large, is aiding him in the great work. These distinguished gentlemen, I assure you, are dealing death blows to Radicalism in the mountains. If they continue to work as they have heretofore, there will be scarcely a Radical left in all this region to tell the tale of their ruin. Already the Leagues and Red Strings are breaking to pieces. Hundreds in every county have come, and are coming, out of them. They swear that Holden, Harris, & Co., can't forge chains enough to bind them longer in these midnight plotting conclaves. I repeat, gentlemen, THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON! Wherever the speakers go, the people turn out en masse to hear them. Even in those counties, where Radicalism is most powerful and rampant, they have not failed to have large and enthusiastic audiences.

In Mitchell county, for instance, where the people were almost a unit for the Radical party at the last election, the speakers were met by several hundred persons. This will be the more surprising, when I tell you, that some of our best citizens thought it extremely hazardous for Vance even to pass through the county. But it will not be dangerous after this to go to Mitchell. Instead of going out with his "hide full of bullets," as was anticipated in Vance's case, an honest white man would now carry out his pockets full of votes!

In Yancey county, the change is even greater. Last election gave the Radicals a majority; next election will put the white men in the lead by hundreds! Even the prominent leaders of the U. L. A. have come over to the White Man's party, and are now doing all they can to defeat the Constitution. This is due, in a great measure, to the powerful speaking of Vance and Erwin, at Burnsville, a few days ago. It is said that, while both speeches were most excellent, that of the last named gentleman was one of unusual ability. And this is saying a great deal for the Major, because he was never known to make a poor speech. But who could'nt have spoken well with one thousand white men before him? How striking the contrast between this audience and that of A. H. Jones and Jim Henry, Radical candidates, at the same place, a few days before! One thousand white men by the side of ten men, eight women, six negroes and two dogs—in all twenty-six!! No wonder Jimmie complained of head ache and went to bed. Don't you guess it was heart ache that "ailed him?" But a friend on my right says the niggers got his heart twelve months ago, and suggests that he must have been suffering with another ache—a terrible disease for Judges to be afflicted with.

Well, I must tell you how things stand in Madison, the home of Gahagan, one of Daddy Kowles' Smellfunkeys, but, withal, a good old county. Well, to be brief, things are all right. Gov. Vance and Maj. Erwin addressed seven or eight hundred of the citizens at Ivy, on the 7th inst. But for the inclemency of the weather, there would have been present on the ground at least a thousand persons.—Suffice it to say of these speeches, they were very good. As an evidence of it, many "Leaguers" declared themselves "out," before the speakers took their seats. By the way, Capt. A. Kelsey is the white man's standard bearer in Madison, against the aforesaid Smellfunkey. Right nobly will he carry it, too.

I now come to Buncombe—down trodden, but glorious old Buncombe. Here, as elsewhere, the prospects are very flattering. Canvassers are doing their whole duty. Political documents are being circulated and speeches made in every nook and corner of the county. Notwithstanding the people are busy with preparations for their crops, they turn out whenever and wherever a white man will address them. On the night of the 7th inst., Vance and Erwin spoke to a large audience at Reem's Creek. It is said they did much good. But the meeting here on the 10th. was unquestionably the largest we have had in Buncombe for years. Not less than twelve hundred persons were present, filling to overflowing the large Chapel of the Female College at this place. At 11 o'clock, A. M., Gov. Vance and Major Erwin entered, amidst the deafening applause of the audience. The Gov. led off in a speech of three hours' length. And such a speech as it was! Though I took copious notes, I will not dare attempt a report of it. That his arguments were overwhelming, and his style inimitable, scarcely need be stated. His comment on the several Radical candidates excited uncontrollable mirth, mixed up, I dare say, with a great deal of contempt for the men whom he handled.

Major Erwin next addressed the audience; but as it had already been so long detained, he cut his speech down to a little over an hour's length. But even in this short space his transcendent powers as a speaker were fully discovered. I really thought no white man could fail to be convinced. I know most of that color who were present were convinced by these great speeches; but some, from motives of personal aggrandizement, will not act out their convictions. Among this class are such men as Jim Henry, and others. By the way, Major Erwin produced and read extracts from an original letter written in 1863 by this same man Henry, who is, you know, a Radical candidate for Judge. It is full of patriotism and devotion to the South. Among other things, it says, "That he had fixed an ultimatum beyond which the U. S. government couldn't go and he continue his allegiance; and that the said government having transgressed that limit, he considered it just cause for secession and WAR." The whole letter appeared to breathe blood and thunder. The Major's sarcasm was so withering that men of the Radical party present actually drooped their heads in shame! These very Rads have heard this friend of "secession and war" pray for a few moments control of the thunder-bolts, that he might send all the rebels to the devil. These same Rads know that Henry has also declared that he would head a negro regiment to exterminate the white men of North Carolina.—Who can blame them for being ashamed? I would leave any party that couldn't afford better men,—I would leave any party that had one such man in it. But enough of this.

The speakers were frequently interrupted by long and continued applause. The wild bursts of enthusiasm that now and then rent the air reminded one of those yells that were once the precursors of certain victory. If you could have heard them you would think with me, that they, too, were precursors of victory, not over a gallant and powerful foe, as of yore, to be sure, but a triumph of principle, a White Man's victory over negroes and niggers.

It will be seen that I have thus far confined my remarks to but a few counties. It must not be inferred from this that these are the only counties in which re-action is going on. In McDowell, Burke, Catawba, Watauga and Ashe; in Rutherford, Henderson, Transylvania, Haywood, Macon and Cherokee,—in all these counties, we have prominent speakers From them ALL, come the cheering reports, that "the Leagues are bursting," "white men are rallying," and numerous other things "too good to mention."

THE GREAT MASS MEETING AT HENDERSON! TWO THOUSAND PERSONS PRESENT!!

HENDERSON, N. C. April 17, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—The Mass Meeting advertised to take place here, to day, has proven more than a success—the number of our white, and black people, too, present, and the degree of enthusiasm which has prevailed, being far beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. Not less than FIFTEEN HUNDRED WHITES, and five hundred blacks, were in attendance. If such a feeling as prevailed here, to-day, is extant in the entire State, well may Holden and his miserable coborts quake. The handwriting on the wall is unmistakably prominent, and those who are endeavoring to fasten upon the people of our noble Old State such a degradation,—such an infamy, such a prostitution, as is embodied in that sickly abortion, called a Constitution, may well call upon the rocks of our mountains to hide them, for their iniquity and shame indeed are great. I wish I was capable of conveying to you, and your numerous readers, the real magnificence of our meeting! It is pronounced the largest ever held in this section.

And the several speeches have been only such as could be expected from the distinguished and able gentlemen, who delivered them. If such a thing were possible, our honored Ex. Governor Bragg, Col. W. A. Jenkins, and Col. James T. Littlejohn, surpassed themselves in their several efforts.—Such lucid, argumentative, impressive speeches have rarely been listened to; they have certainly never been excelled. Each seemed to draw additional inspiration from the large assembly, aside from that derived from the great importance of the issues before us, and an honest, patriotic, noble devotion to the preservation of that government, and its principles, framed for us, by an ancestry, either one of whom would, if now amongst us, form a match for the combined intelligence and moral worth of those who now essay to make laws for us. These gentlemen have deported themselves nobly, and, in due time, will a high minded, appreciative people give them their reward.

There was a large barbecue served, which was fully appreciated by the vast assembly. Two tables were set, one for, the whites, and the other for the blacks. There being some more than was expected—having had such bad weather during the past week,—scarcely enough was served, though quite enough was at hand. But those who did not feast at the barbecue were fully compensated by one of Capt. Swett's good dinners.

Proclaim to the world, Messrs. Editors, that Radicalism in its every phase is dead, in old North Carolina; that her brave and chivalric sons, who stood by her when the dark and dismal clouds of a terrible devastating war were hanging heavily upon her, are now by her side, inspired by the same veneration and devotion which impelled them to such grand and heroic deeds of valor in her defence in that time, to still vindicate, defend and maintain her honor, integrity, and glorious prestige, sacred and inviolate. Tell them, that North Carolinians still preserve an inheritage of that mettle which characterized her illustrious sons, their sires, who were the first to give to the breeze of heaven their banner, upon which is inscribed its memorable declaration of independence, in old Mecklenburg county, in 1775. We are white men, native North Carolinians, and by the blessings and assistance of a Divine Providence, WE WILL REMAIN SO!! God bless old North Carolina, and her brave and noble sons!!

THE OLD NATIONAL EXPRESS CO.

NEW YORK, April 18, M.

The Supreme Court of this State has reserved the decision in the case forbidding the Directors of the Express Co., whereof Gen. Johnston was President, from contracting debts or collecting assessments.

IMPEACHMENT—CABINET TESTIMONY EXCLUDED.

WASHINGTON, April 18 P. M

Speaker Colfax took the Chair of the House informally, before the board meeting, and, with such members as were present, accompanied the Managers to Court.

The Court session was resumed on the question of the admission of the Cabinet proceedings in evidence.

Wilson, on the part of the Managers, read his speech, and Judge Curtis followed.

Judge Chase decided that the evidence was admissible, but the vote being taken, it was excluded. The vote stood: Yeas 20, nays 26.

FROM VIRGINIA—THE CONVENTION ADJOURNED—THE WHITE MEN MOVING.

RICHMOND, April 18, M.

The Convention adjourned at midnight, last night, subject to the call of the Committee. Only the President and Secretary signed the Constitution—a motion having been adopted dispensing with signing by the members.

It is understood that the Conservatives would have refused to sign it. Among the Republicans voting against its final adoption, was a negro.

After the adjournment, speeches were made. Porter a leading Regn issue, predicted the adoption of the Constitution by a large majority.

Stead and Allen, two leading Republicans, predicted the defeat of the Constitution, and said it would be deserved. Stead opposed it mainly on the ground of the fraudulent character of the Homestead exemption, and Allen because it placed the white man and the negro.

General Schofield, to-day, suspended J. S. Calvert State Treasurer, on charges preferred by the Governor, and appointed George Rye Secretary of the Convention, Treasurer, ad interim.

The Conservative Executive Committee, last night, called a State Convention, to meet here on May 7th, to nominate State officers.

The final vote on the adoption of the Constitution, in the Convention, last night, was 51 to 28. Four Republicans voting against it.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 18, P. M.

The announcement of the vote, telegraphed at noon, was followed by a general rising in the Senate.

After ten minutes, the Counsel announced that they were ready to resume, when sufficient quiet was restored.

Chase rapped probably five times before he succeeded in restoring order.

This is the first time, during the trial, that these irregularities have occurred, and the importance of the vote may be inferred therefrom.

There was no applause or other demonstration, but simply a rising from seats. Every one seemed inclined to ask his neighbor "what he thought now?"

The vote was as follows:

YEAS—Anthony, Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Patterson, of Tennessee, Ross, Saulsbury, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Vickers and Willey—20.

NAYS—Cameron, Conness, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Cattell, Corbett, Morgan, Drake, Edmonds, Ferry, Frelinghuysen, Harlan, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill, of Maine, Morrill, of Vermont, Patterson of New Hampshire, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Thayer, Tipton, Williams, Wilson and Yates—29.

This question involved the support of the President by the Cabinet, in view of the violation of the Constitution in removing Stanton and appointing Thomas.

The next question was stated as follows: Were offers to prove that, at the meeting of the Cabinet, Mr. Stanton being present, when the Tenure-of-Office bill came up for consideration, the question was asked, as the opinion expressed, that Mr. Stanton, and the other Cabinet officers appointed by Mr. Lincoln, did not come under the restrictions.

Judge Chase again decided the evidence admissible.

Drake appealed.

The appeal was sustained—22 to 26.

On this vote, Sprague and Sherman voted with the minority.

The next question was whether the Cabinet argued injury to the service by Stanton's continuance.

The Senate refused to hear the evidence—19 to 30.

On this vote Willey voted with the majority.

Secretary Welles was then subjected to a severe cross examination, but nothing new was elicited.

Post Master General Randall was next called. He said that Blodgett was suspended from the Augusta Post Office without the knowledge of or consultation with the President. Randall knew of no appointments of persons in his Department, who could not take the test-oath, and Blodgett was suspended, because of his indictment for getting the office by perjury.

The defence here closed reserving the right to call other witnesses; in case Mr. Stanbery, who knew no act of the matter but, was now sick, thought best.

The Court adjourned

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, April 18 P. M.

Mr. R. Randolph, Editor of the Tuscaloosa Monitor, lately had a difficulty with a negro in Tuscaloosa county, in which he cut the negro with a knife.

Mr. Randolph, on learning that his arrest was ordered by the Military, came at once to Montgomery, and reached this city last night at 9 o'clock and immediately reported to General Shepherd. He was told to report this morning at 10 o'clock which he did promptly. Shepherd informed Mr. Randolph that he must be committed to Military prison, without the benefit of bail.

He further remarked that, in all cases of Military arrests, the party would be committed to Military prison, there to remain until discharged by a Military Commission.

ORDER FROM GENERAL CANBY.

HEADQRS 2ND. MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS
No. 61.

The Commanding General has received information from different sections of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, and from members of both political parties, that combinations have been formed, or are now being formed, to prevent, delay or hinder the execution of the laws of the United States, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent persons from accepting or executing the duties of any office or employment under the United States, at the elections to be held under the authority of the law of March 2 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the laws that are supplementary thereto. While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Superintendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1867. (Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially performed, and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any District or County, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented, or the ballot-boxes or poll-lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such District, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly executed; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military Commissioners for Districts or counties within the territorial limits of their commands that are so remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised.

The Military Commissioners so appointed are invested with all the powers of the Justices of the Peace of Districts or Counties, or the police magistrates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the Headquarters of this District; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of Districts, Counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables, and other peace officers, are required to obey and execute the orders of the Military Commissioners in all such cases.

The Military Commissioners will promptly report all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made in each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under ball, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the Commanding General to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal or be brought before a civil court.

The jurisdiction herein given to the Military Commissioners will be determined and limited by the authority heretofore delegated to Post Commanders by General Orders No. 32, of May 30, 1867, and General Orders No. 145, of December 6, 1867, and will not be considered as extending to the inhabitants in their ordinary personal relations, unless the civil authorities should refuse or fail to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to give all rightful protection to persons and property; and all persons, whether in authority or not, are required to obey and execute all lawful orders of the Military Commissioners to the same extent and in the same manner that they are required by law to obey and execute the writs of the civil magistrates.

Some of the complaints that have reached the Commanding General apply to colored voters of the two States, and to sections where they have the numerical ascendancy. To them it is proper to say that the elective franchise conferred upon them by law, carries with it no authority to restrict others in the free exercise of that right; and that while it is their duty not to regard threats or intimidations as to themselves, any combinations to prevent by force, intimidation or threats the same free exercise of this right by others will be unlawful, and will subject the offenders to the penalties prescribed by law and by military orders.—They are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, not to linger about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

Commanding Officers will give as wide a circulation as possible to this order within the limits of their commands.

By command of Brevet Major General
Ed. R. S. CANBY.

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 23, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
NO. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention," and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress. It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election is peremptorily ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.
